

BAJA Trip Leader Information Sheet

Trip Details:

- All participants will need a current Passport or Passport Card.
- Plan travel arriving by 11 am on Monday to the San Diego Airport.
- We will arrive back to the San Diego Airport by 3 pm on Saturday.
- Our Adventures Baja team will meet you at the airport and take you to camp.
- YLA Baja base camp, Rancho Sordo Mundo is 2 hrs. south of San Diego Airport
- Check out our newest promo video
- Camp fee is $765, which includes money towards service projects
- Campers can raise money for their trip as the cost goes directly to serve others!

About the Camp Week:

- Adventures Baja is known as “the hidden gem of Young Life Camping!”
- We have daily club, cabin time, morning devos in a intimate setting of 50 guests
- The three days of service projects are helping build a house for a family, cooking lunch at Door of Faith Orphanage, & constructing a retreat center.
- Our final day of camp includes time at Puerto Nuevo market & La Mision Beach

Questions about safety:

- YL consults with Healix for Travel Risk Management for any international trips.
- YLA has a Camp Medic. We are within a mile of a medical clinic and pharmacy.
- Filtered, safe drinking water is available at all times.
- Food is prepared by our camp cook & camp staff team.
- Our team of 6 adults and 6 summer interns accompany leaders and campers.
- Base camp has a gate, perimeter fence, and a security guard.
- Camp is in the beautiful Guadalupe Valley, known as the Napa Valley of Mexico.
- video: Door of Faith Orphanage Founder DJ Scheutze on safety
- video: YLA Baja Camp Managers James & Courtney show you Baja

For more info:

<https://www.ylcalifornia.com/baja/>

The Trip Leader Page

Young Life Adventures Baja video showcase on Vimeo
packing list